

It is one of the most widespread and serious child health problems.

It can have devastating effects that last throughout a lifetime.

It strikes 1 out of every 10 children and adolescents.

But it can often be prevented.

Or identified and stopped.

If you know how.

The TEDI BEAR Children's Advocacy Center at ECU's Brody School of Medicine offers free Stewards of Children training for social service staff, parents, foster parents, adoptive parents, and organizations that are responsible for children.

Stewards of Children is a 2 – 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> hour seminar on practical, evidence-based ways to prevent, recognize, and respond effectively to child sexual abuse. The training can be offered in any community, on any day or evening of the week, at no charge. It can also be offered in either one or two sessions. This training is approved for several types of continuing education credit, and is especially appropriate for:

- Social Workers
- Child Protective Services Staff
- Human Services Administrators
- Foster Parents & Supervisors
- Adoption Services Staff
- Prevention & Crisis Staff
- Parent Education Programs
- Community Organizations
